Explanatory Note

On March 25, 2020, the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order under Section 36 (Release No. 34-88465) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) granting exemptions from specified provisions of the Exchange Act and certain rules thereunder (the “Order”). The Order provides conditional relief to public companies that are unable to timely comply with their filing obligations as a result of the novel coronavirus (“COVID-19”) pandemic. ScoutCam Inc. (the “Company”) relied on the Order to delay the filing of this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2020, due to circumstances related to COVID-19. The Company’s headquarters and other accounting offices are located in Israel where “lock-down” or “stay at home” orders were previously implemented in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. While the Israeli government has since relaxed certain of the restrictions previously imposed on business and individuals alike, during the period prior to May 15, 2020, the Company’s accounting personnel and other related service providers worked remotely, and, as a result, the Company’s accounting workflow and its ability to complete necessary review processes and procedures with respect to its financial statements were negatively impacted. Accordingly, the Company required additional time to prepare and finalize this report.

SCOUTCAM INC.

NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 – GENERAL:

- a. ScoutCam Inc. (the “Company”), formally known as Intellisense Solutions Inc., was incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada on March 22, 2013 under the name Intellisense Solutions Inc., or Intellisense. The Company was initially engaged in the business of developing web portals to allow companies and individuals to engage in the purchase and sale of vegetarian food products over the Internet. The Company was unable to execute its original business plan, develop significant operations or achieve commercial sales. Prior to the closing of the Securities Exchange Agreement (as defined below), the Company was a “shell company”.

ScoutCam Ltd., or ScoutCam, was formed in the State of Israel on January 3, 2019 as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Medigus Ltd. (the “Parent Company”, “Medigus”), an Israeli company traded both on the Nasdaq Capital Market and the Tel Aviv Stock Exchange, and commenced operations on March 1, 2019. Upon incorporation, ScoutCam issued to Medigus 1,000,000 Ordinary shares with no par value. On March 2019, ScoutCam issued to Medigus an additional 1,000,000 Ordinary shares with no par value.

ScoutCam was incorporated as part of a reorganization of Medigus, which was designed to distinguish ScoutCam’s miniaturized imaging business, or the micro ScoutCam™ portfolio, from Medigus’s other operations and to enable Medigus to form a separate business unit with dedicated resources focused on the promotion of such technology. In December 2019, Medigus and ScoutCam consummated a certain Amended and Restated Asset Transfer Agreement, under which Medigus transferred and assigned certain assets and intellectual property rights related to its miniaturized imaging business to ScoutCam.

On September 16, 2019, Intellisense entered into a Securities Exchange Agreement (the “Exchange Agreement”), with Medigus, pursuant to which Medigus assigned, transferred and delivered 100% of its holdings in ScoutCam to Intellisense, in exchange for consideration consisting of shares of Intellisense’s common stock representing 60% of the issued and outstanding share capital of Intellisense immediately upon the closing of the Exchange Agreement (the “Closing”). The Closing occurred on December 30, 2019 (the “Closing Date”).

Although the transaction resulted in ScoutCam becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of Intellisense, the transaction constituted a reverse recapitalization since Medigus, the only shareholder of ScoutCam prior to the Exchange Agreement, was issued a substantial majority of the outstanding capital stock of Intellisense upon consummation of the Exchange Agreement, and also taking into account that prior to the Closing Date, Intellisense was considered as a shell corporation. Accordingly, ScoutCam is considered the accounting acquirer of the merged company.

ScoutCam has developed a range of micro CMOS (complementary metal-oxide semiconductor) and CCD (charge-coupled device) video cameras, including micro ScoutCam™ 1.2. These innovative cameras are suitable for both medical and industrial applications. Based on its proprietary technology, the Company designs and manufactures endoscopy and micro camera systems for partner companies.

SCOUTCAM INC.

- b. The accompanying comparative consolidated financial statements include the historical accounts of ScoutCam as a “Carve-out Business”, a division of Medigus. Throughout the comparative periods included in these Financial Statements, the Carve-out Business operated as part of Medigus. Separate financial statements have not historically been prepared for the Carve-out Business. These comparative carve-out financial data has been prepared on a standalone basis and is derived from Medigus’s consolidated financial statements and accounting records. The carve-out comparative financial data reflects ScoutCam’s financial position, results of operations, changes in net parent deficit and cash flows in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

The financial position, results of operations, changes in net parent deficit, and cash flows of the Carve-out Business may not be indicative of its results had it been a separate stand-alone entity during the comparative periods presented.

The comparative carve-out financial data of the Company include expenses which were allocated from Medigus for certain functions, including general corporate expenses related to corporate strategy, procurement, Information Technology (“IT”), Human Resources (“HR”) and legal. These allocation have been made on the basis of direct usage when identifiable, with the remainder allocated on the basis of headcount. Management believes the expense allocation methodology and results are reasonable and consistently applied for all comparative periods presented. However, these allocations may not be indicative of the actual expenses that would have been incurred by an independent company or of the costs to be incurred in the future.

The carve-out comparative financial statements include assets and liabilities specifically attributable to the Carve-out Business. Medigus uses a centralized approach for managing cash and financing operations. Accordingly, a substantial portion of the cash balances are transferred to Medigus’ cash management accounts regularly and therefore are not included in the financial statements. Transfers of cash between Carve-out business and Medigus are included within “Net transfers from Parent company” on the Statements of Cash Flows and the Statements of changes in shareholder’s equity (capital deficiency).

As the carve-out comparative financial information has been prepared on a carve-out basis, the amounts reflected in Parent Company deficit in the comparative statement of changes in shareholder’s equity (capital deficiency) refer to net loss for the period attributed to ScoutCam in addition to transactions between Medigus and ScoutCam.

- c. During the three month ended March 31, 2020, the Company incurred a loss of USD 1,413 thousand and negative cash flows from operating activities of approximately USD 1,137 thousand. Based on the projected cash flows, the Company’s Management is of the opinion that without further fundraising it will not have sufficient resources to enable it to continue its operating activities including the development, manufacturing and marketing of its products within one year after the issuance date of these financial statements. As a result, there is a substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the issuance date of these financial statements.

Management’s plans include continuing commercialization of the Company’s products and securing sufficient financing through the sale of additional equity securities, debt or capital inflows from strategic partnerships and other opportunities. There are no assurances however, that the Company will be successful in obtaining the level of financing needed for its operations. If the Company is unsuccessful in commercializing its products and securing sufficient financing, it may need to reduce activities, curtail or even cease operations.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern, which assumes the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. Accordingly, the consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded assets and the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

The accounting policies set out below have, unless otherwise stated, been applied consistently.

SCOUTCAM INC.NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*NOTE 2 – BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES*A. Unaudited Interim Financial Statements

The accompanying unaudited interim condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included (consisting only of normal recurring adjustments except as otherwise discussed). For further information, reference is made to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019.

B. Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries. All intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

C. Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. The Company evaluates on an ongoing basis its assumptions, including those related to contingencies, deferred taxes, inventory impairment, stock based compensation, as well as in estimates used in applying the revenue recognition policy. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

D. Significant Accounting Policies

The significant accounting policies followed in the preparation of these unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements are identical to those applied in the preparation of the latest annual financial statements.

E. Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncement

The significant accounting policies followed in the preparation of these unaudited interim consolidated financial statements are identical to those applied in the preparation of the latest annual audited financial statements with the exception of the following:

In June 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-13 “Financial Instruments – Credit Losses” to improve information on credit losses for financial assets and net investment in leases that are not accounted for at fair value through net income. The ASU replaces the current incurred loss impairment methodology with a methodology that reflects expected credit losses. The Company adopted this ASU on January 1, 2020. There was not a material impact on the interim consolidated financial statements.

In August 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-13, “Changes to Disclosure Requirements for Fair Value Measurements,” which will improve the effectiveness of disclosure requirements for recurring and nonrecurring fair value measurements. The standard removes, modifies, and adds certain disclosure requirements and is effective for the Company beginning on January 1, 2020. This standard did not have a material effect on the Company’s interim consolidated financial statements.

In November 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-18 – “Collaborative Arrangements (Topic 808),” which clarifies the interaction between Topic 808 and Topic 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. The Company adopted this standard in the first quarter of fiscal year 2020. This standard did not have a material impact on the Company’s consolidated financial statements and related disclosures.

F. Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2019, the FASB issued ASU No. 2019-12, “Income Taxes (Topic 740): Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes (“ASU 2019-12”), which is intended to simplify various aspects related to accounting for income taxes. ASU 2019-12 removes certain exceptions to the general principles in Topic 740 and also clarifies and amends existing guidance to improve consistent application. This guidance is effective for the Company beginning on January 1, 2021, with early adoption permitted. The Company does not expect that the adoption of this standard will have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements and related disclosures.

SCOUTCAM INC.NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*NOTE 3 – LEASES:

On January 1, 2019, the Company adopted ASU 2016-02 using the modified retrospective approach for all lease arrangements at the beginning period of adoption. ScoutCam Ltd. leases office and vehicles under operating leases. At March 31, 2020, the Company's ROU assets and lease liabilities for operating leases totaled $72 thousand.

In January 2020, ScoutCam Ltd. entered into a lease agreement for office space in Omer, Israel. The agreement is for 11 months beginning on February 1, 2020. Monthly lease payments under the agreement are approximately $6 thousand. Lease expenses recorded in the interim consolidated statements of operations were $15 thousand for the three months ended March 31, 2020. The Company has elected the short-term lease exception for this lease. As part of this election it will not recognize right-of-use assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet for this lease.

In February 2020, the Company's Board of Directors approved the 2020 Share Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan initially included a pool of 5,228,007 shares of common stock for grant to Company employees, consultants, directors and other service providers. On March 15, 2020, the Company's Board of Directors approved an increase to the Company's option pool pursuant to the Plan by an additional 576,888 shares of Common Stock.

The Plan is designed to enable the Company to grant options to purchase ordinary shares and RSUs under various and different tax regimes including, without limitation: (i) pursuant and subject to Section 102 of the Israeli Tax Ordinance or any provision which may amend or replace it and any regulations, rules, orders or procedures promulgated thereunder and to designate them as either grants made through a trustee or not through a trustee; and (ii) pursuant and subject to Section 3(i) of the Israeli Tax Ordinance.

On February 12, 2020, the Company granted 4,367,515 options pursuant to the Plan. Each option is convertible into one share of common stock of the Company of $0.001 par value at the exercise price of $0.29.

On March 15, 2020, the Company granted 576,888 options pursuant to the Plan to each of the Company's then serving directors, excluding Professor Benad Goldwasser. Each option is convertible into one share of common stock of the Company of $0.001 par value at the exercise price of $0.29.

The fair value of each option was estimated as of the date of grant or reporting period using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model, using the following assumptions:

	February 12, 2020	March 15, 2020
Underlying value of ordinary shares ($)	0.484	0.484
Exercise price ($)	0.29	0.29
Expected volatility (%)	43.35	45.25
Term of the options (years)	7	7
Risk-free interest rate	1.55	0.89

The cost of the benefit embodied in the options granted during the three months ended March 31, 2020, based on their fair value as at the grant date, is estimated to be approximately $2.9 million. These amounts will be recognized in statements of operations over the vesting period.

SCOUTCAM INC.NOTES TO THE INTERIM CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS*NOTE 7 – LOSS PER SHARE

Basic loss per share is computed by dividing net loss attributable to ordinary shareholders of the Company, by the weighted average number of ordinary shares as described below.

In computing the Company's diluted loss per share, the numerator used in the basic loss per share computation is adjusted for the dilutive effect, if any, of the Company's potential shares of common stock. The denominator for diluted loss per share is a computation of the weighted-average number of ordinary shares and the potential dilutive ordinary shares outstanding during the period.

The loss per share information in these consolidated financial statements is reflected and calculated as if the Company had existed since January 1, 2019. Overview

ScoutCam Ltd. was formed in Israel on January 3, 2019, as a wholly owned subsidiary of Medigus Ltd., an Israeli company ("Medigus"), and commenced operations on March 1, 2019. ScoutCam was incorporated as part of the reorganization of Medigus, which was designed to distinguish ScoutCam's miniaturized imaging business, or the micro ScoutCamTM portfolio, from Medigus's other operations and to enable Medigus to form a separate business unit with dedicated resources focused on the promotion of such technology (the "Reorganization"). In December 2019, Medigus and ScoutCam consummated that Amended and Restated Asset Transfer Agreement, which transferred and assigned certain assets and intellectual property rights related to its miniaturized imaging business.

On March 1, 2019, 12 employees moved from Medigus to ScoutCam.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk.

As a smaller reporting company, we are not required to provide the information requested by this Item.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures.Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our management, with the participation of our Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Chief Financial Officer (CFO), evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as of March 31, 2020. The term “disclosure controls and procedures,” as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Exchange Act, means controls and other procedures of a company that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by a company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the SEC’s rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include, without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by a company in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the company’s management, including its principal executive and principal financial officers, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. Management recognizes that any controls and procedures, no matter how well designed and operated, can provide only reasonable assurance of achieving their objectives and management necessarily applies its judgment in evaluating the cost-benefit relationship of possible controls and procedures. As a result of the material weakness in our internal control over financial reporting described below, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures were not effective at the reasonable assurance level as of March 31, 2020.

In connection with the audit of our 2019 annual consolidated financial statements, we identified a material weakness in our internal control over financial reporting related to the complexities involving the accounting for our reverse recapitalization transaction. The cause of this material weakness was due to the complex accounting related to the reverse recapitalization transaction, which required additional qualified accounting personnel with an appropriate level of experience, and additional controls in the period-end financial reporting process commensurate with the complexity of the matter. A material weakness is defined as a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control over financial reporting such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of annual or interim financial statements will not be prevented or detected and corrected on a timely basis. The material weakness did not result in any identified misstatements to the financial statements, and there were no changes to previously released financial results. In light of the material weakness, we performed additional analyses and other post-closing procedures and hired an additional accounting personnel to ensure our consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Accordingly, our CEO and CFO have certified that, based on their knowledge, the consolidated financial statements, and other financial information included in this Form 10-Q, fairly present in all material respects our financial condition, results of operations and cash flows as of, and for, the periods presented in this Form 10-Q.

Because of its inherent limitations, internal control over financial reporting may not prevent or detect misstatements. Also, projections of any evaluation of effectiveness to future periods are subject to the risks that controls may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Remediation Efforts to Address Material Weakness

We began remediation efforts in the second quarter of 2020 for our accounting of non-routine complex transactions control by hiring additional personnel for our finance team. We continue to evaluate our internal and external technical accounting resources to ensure they are appropriate for us and our needs. Additionally, there is a renewed emphasis on our process going forward for initial identification of potential contracts and transactions that may be non-routine and complex during a reporting period, and then conducting the necessary procedures with the full internal accounting team and external consultants to review and research the proper guidance and approach toward the accounting, and documenting as such in a white paper or memo as needed.

We believe these measures, and others that may be implemented, will remediate the material weakness in internal control over financial reporting described above.

The material weakness will not be considered formally remediated until the control has operated effectively for a sufficient period of time, and after management has concluded, through testing, that the control is operating effectively.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Other than the changes intended to remediate the material weakness noted above, there was no change in our internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Rules 13a-15(f) and 15d-15(f) under the Exchange Act) during the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2020 that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS.

Our business faces many risks, a number of which are described under the caption “Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019 (the “2019 Annual Report”). Other than as set forth below, there have been no material changes from the risk factors previously disclosed in our 2019 Annual Report. The risks described in the 2019 Annual Report and below may not be the only risks we face. Other risks of which we are not yet aware, or that we currently believe are not material, may also materially and adversely impact our business operations or financial results. If any of the events or circumstances described in the risk factors contained in the 2019 Annual Report or described below occurs, our business, financial condition or results of operations could be adversely impacted and the value of an investment in our securities could decline. Investors and prospective investors should consider the risks described in the 2019 Annual Report and below, and the information contained under the caption “Forward-Looking Statements” and elsewhere in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q before deciding whether to invest in our securities.

The COVID-19 pandemic has adversely affected our business and operations, and the continued outbreak of the pandemic may cause further material and adverse harm to our business and operations.

The recent outbreak of COVID-19, which originated in Wuhan, China in late 2019, has since spread to multiple countries, including the United States and Israel. On March 11, 2020, the World Health Organization declared the outbreak a pandemic. While COVID-19 is still spreading and the final implications of the pandemic are difficult to estimate at this stage, it is clear that it has affected the lives of a large portion of the global population. At this time, the pandemic has caused states of emergency to be declared in various countries, travel restrictions imposed globally, quarantines established in certain jurisdictions and various institutions and companies being closed. We are actively monitoring the pandemic and we are taking necessary measures to respond to the situation in cooperation with the various stakeholders.

Based on guidelines instituted by the Israeli government, employers (including us) are required to allow employees to work remotely. In that regard, and in compliance with all applicable Israeli rules and guidelines, our offices have remained open since the middle of March 2020, but certain of our essential employees worked, and continue to work, remotely. Accordingly, Israeli containment measures have caused a number of disruptions to our business operations, including, but not limited to, the inability of our employees to access our facilities in a normal fashion, and likewise certain of our professional advisors have been precluded from effectively rendering their services to us as well. This, in turn, prevented us from obtaining all of the necessary financial records required in order to effectively prepare and file our Form 10-Q Quarterly Report in a timely manner.

Additionally, COVID-19 may also result in the inability of our manufacturers to deliver components or finished products on a timely basis, and may also result in the inability of our suppliers to deliver the parts required by our manufacturers to complete manufacturing of components or finished products. The extent to which COVID-19 will impact our operations moving forward remains uncertain. A number of factors will determine the trajectory of such impact, including the duration and severity of the outbreak, the possibility of a “second wave”, and the actions that may be required to contain and/or treat COVID-19. In particular, the continued spread of COVID-19 globally could adversely impact our operations and workforce, including our research and clinical trials and its ability to raise capital, which in turn could have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition and results of operation.
